

Trish Hill

I am originally from New Jersey. I have been a member of the Middleburg community for five years. I am grateful for the ways Emmanuel Church has become my spiritual home. I spent 30 years as an Army wife, living throughout the United States and Germany—experiences that shaped my deep appreciation for hospitality, resilience, and building community wherever I go. I hold a degree in Psychology from St. Thomas Aquinas College, and I am retired from my role as an administrative assistant with Northwest Financial Advisors.

I enjoy volunteering in parish life and bring a steady commitment to service. I am the mother of two adult sons, TJ and Chris, mother-in-law to Alyssa, and the proud grandmother of Maddy Grace. I spend my days reading, water coloring, planning the next travel adventure, and enjoying the company of Obi, my faithful dog companion.
